

Goals

You know what you ought to do,
You know what you got to do;
You know how to do the things,
You ought got to do.
Keep your eyes on Him,
Who came before you;
Yearn to let your heart learn how best to please,
Him, who made you;
Who is watching each step you take,
Till you start to soar, with wings spread,
Towards...beyond any earthly standard.
To start anew, taking each step in faith;
Stepping boldly into the unknown; for,
He is the Way, the Truth, the Life
Yea, He is,
Your Way, your Truth, your Life.
